

Attention to the use of Electronic Information Resources !

When you use electronic information resources such as licensed databases, electronic journals and ebooks, comply with the copyright law and terms of use strictly.

If you do not comply with these terms and conditions, it may result in loss of access to these resources for the entire Tokyo Tech community.

Large-scale downloading that is indistinguishable from non-individual use is prohibited.

- It is prohibited to download a lot of files continuously using automated downloading software.
- Even if you download manually, it shall be considered as excessive use if you download a lot of files at one time.
- Use only required article in your study and research.

Please be aware that publishers may monitor the use of electronic resources to ensure that the terms of the license agreement are enforced.

There were some cases of violation by laboratories in the past, which resulted in suspension of access not only for the individual violator, but for the entire institution.

The actions listed below are also prohibited.

- Use for any purpose other than academic research and education.
- Reproduction and distribution to others.
- Any other activities that infringe on the copyright law.
